The Non-Praying Clergymen.

We learn that the Rev. Dr. Pinckney, of the Church of the Ascension, yesterday omitted the prayer of thanks for recent victories in the suppression of the rebellion, designated by Bishop Whittingham in accordance with the proclamation of the President.

Dr. Pinckney, it will be remembered, was elected Bishop of Alabama of the Confederate States, and, secording to general report, would have accepted the position but for the disincilination of Mrs. Pinckney to leave her Maryland home. Were he now Bishop of Alabama should we have of any failure on his part to second a Jeff. Davis proclamation? Perhaps not.

Officer Meredith, of the 66th ward police, arrested Joseph Andrews, for disorderly conduct in the street. When arrested be threw himself back on his dignity, and declared that the officer had no right to arrest him. He was brought before Justice Furguson, in spits of his protestations, and fised $2.94. He would have that officer attended to, for arresting auch a distinguished individual as himself, if he had to go to the President of the United States to accomplish his object.

A French War Vessel to Visit Alexandria.

The commander of the French sloop-of-war Gassendi, now in Hampton Roads, has notified the Secretary of the Navy that he intends visiting the port of Alexandria. Flag-officer Goldsborough will extend the courtesiac usual in cases where foreign vessels visit inland ports. It is their right to visit any port of entiry, but under circumstances like these it is the practice to give notice of the fact, that any courtesine successary may be extended.

The Chair submitted a communication from the Enyer, embracing the monthly report of the intendant of the Asylum.

Postitions were presented, as follows:
From 30 W. Angus, asking for a license to George Statler, to keep a livery stable.

A communication was submitted from P. F. Mulligan, relative to steam fire engines.

A proposition was submitted from Galvert & Ball, relative to watering Pennsylvania avenue, from the Capitol to Twenty-second street, and making a proposition for that purpose, amounting to $2,700 for horses and carriages, and $5,750 for locational expenses for the season.

The Chair (Mr. Brown) offered a joint resolution of inquiry, relative to asking the co-operation of the Government in the organization of a paid fire department, with at least three steam fire engines.

some reasons why this action should be taken at the present time. We never shall have a better time for selecting lots for school purposes. All the indications at present give swidence of a great increase in the population of this city. All our vacant lots will be occupied, and we have a better opportunity to make the selections of lots now than at any future
